

INGALLS IS ABSENT

HIS IRIDESCENT DOGS NOT ADORN THE MILLION CLUB.

Snowbound Somewhere Up in Wisconsin the Orator of the Evening is Not Heard where the Representatives of Kansas Send Forth Her Princes—Burton is There, However—Governor Morrill Presents to the Chicagoans the Curious Career of the Sunflower State and Her Boundless Resources.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Kansas greeted Chicago tonight. The speakers of the evening displayed Kansas in all her glory and showed Chicagoans that treasurers were lying not far away in the west waiting to be garnered.

The one disappointment of the evening was the non-appearance of John J. Ingalls. He was to have been the star of the occasion. But John J. Ingalls did not come. He telegraphed that he was snowbound somewhere in Wisconsin and that he could not possibly reach Chicago in time for the Kansas meeting.

The Kansas meeting was arranged by the Kansas Million club, which was organized with the sole idea of bringing a million persons to the Sunflower state. Governor E. N. Morrill was on the platform and he it was who led the praises of his state. With the governor on the platform were J. R. Burton, and other Sunflower orators, who were selling remarks were greeted with tremendous applause. E. Stanley, the state school superintendent, and J. W. Beckman, W. C. Edwards, the secretary of the state of Kansas; W. T. Price, J. S. Emory, the irrigation lecturer, and E. Wilder, the treasurer of the Santa Fe road.

Franklin H. Head introduced Governor Morrill briefly and the chief executive of Kansas began to sound the praises of the Sunflower state. He said that fertile lands were awaiting those who wished to seek new homes where they could be independent and where they would not be crowded by the land-lord who always had an insatiable appetite for rent.

MISTAKES ABOUT KANSAS. Many mistakes have been made about the financial standing of Kansas. The club wishes to overcome and set right. The club wishes to put before the people a true, honest statement of facts and of resources of this state and we are all united for the same object.

"Kansas has suffered tremendously on account of the panic of 1893. Up to that time immigration was brisk and many secured homes in the state and many were looking forward to a happy and prosperous career. The trouble came through the ease in borrowing money. We got money too easily from eastern investors and that was the reason why there were so many homeless Kansas people when the panic came."

"The financial pressure was felt more severely in Kansas because the people depend on the land and the land depends on the rainfall. The western part will not be available for cultivation unless under new methods of irrigation. Then it will become the home of thousands of happy and prosperous people."

The governor told them of the growth and history of the state. He said that to 1861, Kansas had no state institutions. Now it had a splendid state house, a state university, hospitals and a home for old people and old soldiers. The entire state indebtedness, he declared, was but $750,000, of which $485,000 was held as the school fund. Kansas was not full of suffering and starvation, but full of wide awake people, who wanted others to join them in building up a great state.

GRASPS THE GAVEL

senators and two representatives to wait upon the president and notify him that congress awaited any communication which the executive branch desired to present.

At 12:30 o'clock a recess of an hour was taken. When the session reconvened Prudden of the White House staff was in the chamber with word that the president's message would not be submitted today, and on motion of Sherman the senate adjourned till tomorrow.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The Republican senators were in caucus for half an hour after the senate adjourned today and adjourned until Wednesday without taking any action on the re-organization of the senate.

Mr. Sherman was elected chairman of the caucus and Mr. Dubois secretary. The discussion was informal and centered around the question whether the Republican senators, having a plurality but not a majority of the senate, should attempt a re-organization with Republican officers and Republican chairman of committees. It was expected that the prevailing sentiment favored Republican organization and some strong speeches were made, notably by Mr. Davis of Minnesota and Aldrich of Rhode Island, urging that there would be no combination of the Republican ranks. This appeared to voice the general view of the senators and no opposition speeches were made.

The question arose, however, as to whether the test of strength should be made on securing the committees or on the choice of a president pro tem. In order to present this issue, Mr. Hoar moved the appointment of a committee on committees, to have charge of a move to secure committee re-organization on Republican lines. Mr. Hale offered an amendment for a test on the choice of a president pro tem. In the formal discussion following, Mr. Frye's name was mentioned as the probable candidate for president pro tem. Some senators raised the point, however, that the president pro tem could not be elected while the prevailing officer was present and acting under the senate rules. It was finally decided that no vote should be taken at present and Messrs. Hoar and Hale withdrew their motions.

The understanding was that a definite line of action would be agreed on at the meeting Wednesday, following the session of that day. The principal reason for the withdrawal of the resolution for the appointment of a caucus committee by the chair was the discovery of the fact that there was a large element in the caucus opposed to the selection of the committee by appointment.

It is now understood that when the understanding is renewed it will be antagonized by a substitute providing for the election of the committee by the caucus.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Senator Faulkner of West Virginia, said today concerning the organization of the senate: "We cannot turn the senate over to the Republicans until they have the votes. Even with the two senators from Utah they will not have a majority, unless Jones of Nevada votes with them, which is expected. Until that time we will have to continue in control."

Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 2.—Benjamin F. Russell sent a telegram to Governor Stone today tendering his resignation as member of the house of representatives from Crawford county. This was made necessary by Russell's election as sergeant-at-arms of the national house of representatives. The governor at once accepted the resignation.

Saratoga, N. Y., Dec. 2.—W. H. Knickerbocker of Sioux City, Iowa, made a settlement with the American Baptist Home Mission society, whereby he comes into immediate possession of property devised to him from the estate of his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Harkinson of Ballston Spa, N. Y.

CONCLUDED TO RISE

WHEAT GETS INTO A QUANDARY EARLY IN THE SESSION.

Amount of Spot Wheat Worked for Shipment from Chicago and for Export from New York is the Deciding Factor—Following a Reaction, the Bulls and Bears—By Good News from Abroad—Cash Number Two Corn Reaches the Lowest Price in Thirty-Three Years—Oats Higher—Provisions Lower.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Wheat had a hesitating appearance for an hour today as to which course to pursue, up or down. It decided finally upon the former and closed strongly at an advance for the day of 1/4 cent per bushel.

The chief cause of the strength the market displayed was to be found in the amount of spot wheat for shipment here and for export from New York. About an hour from the opening May had declined to 60 1/2 cents, of 1/4 cent below its closing bid on Saturday. After the reaction to 60 1/2 cents the position of the bulls was forfeited from time to time by a large number of telegrams which came to hand, after that being in their favor. For instance, the second cables from Liverpool gave that market 1/4 penny higher, the rise, it was said, being due to decreasing stocks of wheat and flour, and anxiety regarding political situation. The market after the first hour became very firm and in the last thirty minutes of the session it ruled strong. May setting as high as 60 1/2 cents about five minutes from the end and it closed at 61 1/2 cents against 60 1/2 bid at the close on Saturday. December at the wind up today was worth 56 1/2 cents, against 56 1/2 cents bid on Saturday.

Corn was weak for cash and steady for futures. The latter were kept firm by the strength in wheat. Cash No. 2 corn sold today a slow 25 1/2 cents, which is said to be the lowest price recorded in thirty years. The price of the pit was light and the changes in prices small as compared with Saturday's closing quotations. December is unchanged, January 1/4 cent higher and May 1/4 cent higher.

A firm feeling was noted in May oats and prices at the close were 1/4 cent higher. Near futures were easy. A good portion of the trading was in the way of exchange of contracts. Trade in May at 2 1/2 cents difference. December started at 17 1/2 cents, sold off to 17 1/4 cents and closed at 17 1/4 bid. May ranged from 20 1/2 to 20 1/2 cents, after having opened at 20 1/2 cents, to 20 1/2 cents and closed with sellers at 20 1/2 cents.

Provisions ran up about 70,000 hogs and suffered a little in the collision. Prices advanced, but were 2 1/2 cents lower for January pork, 5 cents lower for May. Lard was 5 cents lower and ribs from 2 1/2 to 5 cents off for the day. Business was of the usual dull character on Saturday. No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents.

GRAIN MARKET. Kansas City, Dec. 2.—Wheat—Active: No. 2 hard, 57 1/2 cents; No. 2 red, nominally. Corn—Active: No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents.

St. Louis, Dec. 2.—Flour—Quiet, steady and unchanged. Wheat—Started firm, being influenced by freezing here and the critical situation in prices at the seaboard. The market was weak and late, in sympathy with markets elsewhere, advanced and closed strong 1/4 cent. December, 56 1/2 cents; May, 61 1/2 cents.

St. Paul, Dec. 2.—Wheat—Active: No. 2 hard, 57 1/2 cents; No. 2 red, nominally. Corn—Active: No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents.

New York, Dec. 2.—Flour—Receipts, 22,500; shipments, 19,500 barrels; opened slow but closed on the advance. The market was buyers freely at old prices; southern flour nominal.

Wheat—Receipts, 750,000; exports, 91,700. Spot steady; No. 2 red, 61 1/2 cents; No. 1 hard, 62 1/2 cents. Options opened active and firmer on war talk, reacted and were quiet. The market was active on a good export demand; closing firm at 1 1/4 cent advance. No. 2 red, May, 61 1/2 cents; December, 56 1/2 cents; closed 60 1/2 cents. Corn—Receipts, 91,500; exports, 8,200; spot steady; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; delivered. Options opened dull, ruled quiet all day, closing steady at net unchanged 1/4 cent advance. May, 24 1/2 cents; December, 24 1/2 cents; closed 24 1/2 cents. Oats—Receipts, 7,000; exports, 30,200; spot quiet; No. 2 mixed, 24 1/2 cents; delivered. Options opened quiet, ruled barely steady. May, closed 24 1/2 cents; December, 24 1/2 cents.

Buckwheat—Dull, 41 1/2 cents. Rye, barley and barley malt—Dull.

DEATH OF DR. McLAUGHLIN. Prominent Physician and Citizen Dies at Clearwater.

The following obituary on the death of Dr. McLaughlin has been received from Clearwater:

"Death has again visited our little city, this time taking from our midst our beloved friend and highly respected citizen, Dr. McLaughlin, who, having passed away at 4:40 a. m. Wednesday, the doctor came to Clearwater about ten years ago and began the practice of medicine and since that time he has made many warm friends among us. To know Dr. McLaughlin and his qualities was to love him. Although a sufferer from asthma for many years, and in very poor health, he was never known to complain, always wearing a pleasant face and of a very jovial disposition. The doctor leaves a family of ten children to mourn his loss, all married except Anna, who has been a faithful companion to her father since the death of his wife three years ago. Seven of his children and three of his aged brothers were with him when he passed away."

The funeral was held at the Baptist church on Thursday afternoon, and was one of the largest funerals ever at Clearwater. The Masons took charge of the burial.

WILL LECTURE IN WICHITA. Colonel Henry Watterson to Speak Here on the Character of Lincoln.

Colonel Henry Watterson of Kentucky, the distinguished editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and the greatest living orator in Dixie, will lecture at the Garfield hall in this city, Dec. 12, under the auspices of Garfield Post G. A. R. on the life and character of Lincoln. The Kansas City Times said the following day after the lecture: "The lecture was a most successful one. No one in the large and splendid au-

Sir Morrill MacKenzie, Count Maetti and Veno.

In its medical fraternity Europe never numbered two more eminent and respected practitioners than SIR MORRILL MACKENZIE and COUNT MAETTI.

Veno is a native of Scotland and a countryman of Sir Morrill MacKenzie, who feeling more than a passing interest in him on this account made him his confidant, and imparted to him the secrets of the remedies he is now using in this country with such wonderful success.

At the auditorium, last night, listened to the most brilliant periods of Henry Waterson's life as the eloquent and better understanding of Lincoln, a higher ideal of patriotism and a more comprehensive knowledge of humanity. Few men could paint the picture of Lincoln's life as the eloquent and better understanding of Lincoln, a higher ideal of patriotism and a more comprehensive knowledge of humanity.

The eulogy was the tribute of a genius to the memory of one inspired to a grand work which was masterly in the time allotted to its performance. It was a narrative so simple and pathetic that it became the subject of canonization. No man in the world could present a spoken of Lincoln as he deserves to be spoken of. Until Waterson spoke of him no one thoroughly understood a nature that was as plain, simple and straightforward as the path of a plow.

In the work which Henry Waterson is engaged he is serving humanity. He is opening the minds and hearts of his countrymen to the reception of a message that deserves to be cherished. He is teaching the people of this country a lesson in patriotism which will survive and expand after he has joined Lincoln in the Beyond, when posterity will praise him for the more dignified and great character of the greatest epoch in modern history.

CAREER OF FAKER SMITH.

How He Lived in After He Left the City of Chicago.

The following is additional to the history of "Pacer" Smith, who was hanged in Illinois the other day, showing where he went after he left Wichita: Smith was born in Pender, Ind., about 1840.
